PRETTY MARRIAGE AT HALLSBORO'.

Mr. "Jim" Baker and Miss Watkins Are United Under Delightful Circumstances-Storm Was Terrific-Personals and Briefs.

The exclusive publication in the Dis patch of Tuesday that the nailing department of the Old Dominion Iron- and Nail-Works would start up soon was read with the greatest interest by people on this side of the river. When the nafi department was shut down, several years ago, the nail-makers were, of course, thrown out of work. They have sought and found employment in widely scattered places. Few of them have done so well as they did on Bolle Isle. They hall the starting up again of this plant with great pleasure. Many of the naffers are talking of leaving their present employment to go back to Belle Isle. Some are in Richmond; some in the Southern shops, and yet others are elsewhere. It is understood that the Belle Isle people uarantee a year's steady work. ailer earns about $3.59 a day.
